Veteran Golfers meet in Leeton

More than one hundred veteran golfers representing 23 golf clubs from all over NSW met at Leeton for the annual NSWVGA Week of Golf last week.

Procedures consistent with NSW COVID restrictions were applied.

Representatives from NSWVGA spoke highly of the course quality, of the event organization and the hospitality provided by the local players. Many visiting golfers have made plans and bookings to return next year.

The Four-ball event held on Monday was won by Yvonne and Colin Bean from Kooindah Waters

Des Bennell won the longest drive, all the way from Coolangatta. He was presented with a bottle of Frank Senior Port by winemaker Robert Bruno.

In Des's playing group were Gordon Newton from Ballina and Trevor Topp from Nambucca Heads.

The NSWVGA Trophy was presented by Program Director John Daley from Yamba. Winners were Nigel Watler from Sussex Inlet and Susan Reid from Leeton.

Other prizes were presented by Leeton Veteran Golfers President Peter McCloskey

The 54 Hole events were held over three days.

The A Grade winner was Col Mahoney from Narrandera and B Grade winner Barry Irvine from Leeton.

Division 1 winner was Penny Hudson and Division 2 winner Joan Dartnell, both from Leeton.

Daily competition winners were:

Ladies	Division 1	Division 2
Tuesday	Janelle Sullivan (Leeton)	Betty Elsom (Leeton)
Thursday	Lynnette Bates (Gosford)	Susan Reid (Leeton)
Friday	Mary Dodd (Leeton)	Lorraine Kefford (Leeton)
Men	A Grade	B Grade
Tuesday	Eric Hudson (Leeton)	Gordon Whitby (Beverly Park)
Thursday	Nigel Watler (Sussex Inlet)	George Leister (Leeton)
Friday	Mark Stimpson (Gosford)	Kelvin Green (Leeton)

Penny Hudson (Leeton), Julie Berick (Aberdeen), Cheryl Galway (The Ridge) and Yvonne Bean (Kooindah Waters)

Anthony Stone (Sussex Inlet), Ray Marks (Leeton), Ian Howell (Wyong) and Nigel Walter (Sussex Inlet)